

Save our Western Edge!

Canberra's Western Edge, a beautiful patch of critically endangered ecosystems to Canberra's West, is under threat from unsustainable, unaffordable and dangerous development by the ACT Government and property developers.

With Canberra's urban boundary being set by the ACT Government over the next two years, we have to tell our government now that we want our Western Edge protected — not developed — so it can continue to provide vital services to our community.

Sign the petition now:

conservationcouncil.org.au/western-edge

